6 Questions To Ask Your School Age Child After Homework

BEFORE HAND IN

How well do you think you did?

Are you proud of it?

What would you do differently?

What made you stumble that you did not expect?

AFTER HANDED BACK

If they did well- What did you do to get that result?
If they didn't do well- What did you do well? Look for what you did do well. Often this becomes overlooked in the rush to look at the mistakes.

All: What is ONE doable thing you might try next time in light of what you see or happened during this process? Write it in a private accessible place (book/document) ready for review before next use.
